October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

VENTURA, California – District Attorney Gregory D. Totten announced today a collaboration with District Attorneys and United States Attorneys from across California, as well as the national nonprofit Childhelp, to share important facts and resources this week.

If you or a loved one is experiencing domestic violence, you are not alone. Visit the Ventura County Family Justice Center on the web at <https://vcfjc.org/services/>, or Monday through Friday, call (805) 652-7655, text (805) 947-7981, or email vcfjc.coop@ventura.org.

Call 211 for Info Link Ventura County or visit www.211ventura.org on the web. This is a free confidential service that connects people across Ventura County to the resources they need. If you need emergency assistance, please call 911.
