Thousand Oaks Man Re-Arrested and Arraigned for Practicing Medicine Without a License

VENTURA, Calif. – District Attorney Erik Nasarenko announced today that Nitun “Nate” Dayalghai Ahir (DOB 06/17/81), of Thousand Oaks, was arraigned for practicing medicine without a license, in violation of Business and Professions Code section 2052. Ahir was out on bail in case number 2024030574, in which he is alleged to have practiced medicine without a license and represented himself as a doctor at Regen Spine & Nerve, in Ventura, when the District Attorney’s Office received complaints that Ahir was continuing to practice medicine without a license.

In his new case, Ahir is alleged to have unlawfully provided medical services to victims only days after being arraigned in case 2024030574. He is further charged with using the term “Doctor” and the prefix “Dr.” to imply he is a licensed medical professional when he is not. Judge David Hirsch explicitly made a condition of Ahir’s bail that he may not practice medicine, solicit medical business, attempt to treat patients, or receive compensation for any form of medical work, or he faces remand into custody.

According to the California Department of Consumer Affairs, Ahir is not licensed in any capacity – as a doctor, surgeon, nurse, nurse practitioner, chiropractor, or otherwise – in the State of California, nor is he a licensed physician in any other state.

The District Attorney requests that any member of the public who Ahir has attempted to treat contact Investigator Eric Jensen at Eric.Jensen@ventura.org or by calling 805-662-1739. The public is urged to review the licensure status of any medical professionals they are considering seeing by visiting the Department of Consumer Affairs' professional license check website.

This case was investigated by the Department of Consumer Affairs, Health Quality Investigations Unit. Both of Ahir's cases are set for early disposition conference on June 25, 2025, at 1:30 p.m. in Courtroom 12 of the Ventura County Superior Court. He remains out of custody on $50,000 bail.
